

A

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY.

77

1977

ENT

Country MexicoLocality San Miguel Amantla, AzcapotzalcoPeople Either Aztec or Totonacan, Nahuatl StockName Small rectangular piece of diabaseDeep parallel striations on both principalfaces. No wear marks on the corners ofthe side faces showing high polish.Probably used as a polisher & straightener,particularly in the manufacture of arrow shafts.

Orig. No.

124

Collection Museum Purchase, 1916Notes cf #1974Three

Acc.

1265

Width 4.5 cm Length 7 cm Height 3 cm Price

sch

