

A

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY.

EN7

77

164529

Country Mexico
 Locality City of Mexico
 People Rites of Adulapante, Stone Aztec Stock

Name

Frying pan shaped pottery brazier. Pan with large number of oval shaped holes horizontal & vertical. Handle ends in snakes head with collar & large bow back of coil. White slip all over with edgings in red.

Collection Presented by Martin A. Ryerson
 (received from University of Chicago) various collectors

Notes Broken in two. Lower jaw of snake missing. Also tooth of upper jaw. Probably tribute piece.

Width 19 cm Length 62 cm Height 8.5 cm Price

R. 783

Acc. 1468