

A

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY.

10800

1-2

ENT

Country

Mindanao

P. I.

34-21

Locality

Cotabato

People

Magindanao Moro

Stock.

Name

Tala piece brass food standard,
often used as base for brass trays.

Base decorated with single band of short raised lines. Sections cut away for decorative purposes. Bowl shaped top has long leaf like projections, riveted to upper edge.

Collection

over.

R. F. Cummings Expedition
(F. C. Cole, 1907-8)

NELAB.P.482

Notes

Acc. 1060

Width

Length

Height

Price

This two-piece standard is used as a base on which a brass tray is placed; or the bowl may serve alone as a receptacle for betel nuts, tobacco, and the like. The leaf-like projections, on the rim, are cast separately and fastened to the rim.

