

A

ENT

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY.

34-22

109156

Country Luzon, P. I.
 Locality Abra. Manabo
 People Tinguian Stock.

Name Wang-ging (or kabubu)
 Large brown glazed jar, with dragon designs cut in sides.
 "Ears" are raised animal heads.
 Used for basi etc; also for sabon
 - a part of the marriage gift.

965

Collection R. F. Cummings Expedition,

(F. C. Cole, 1907-8).

Notes These jars are secured in trade with the Chinese. Some of them evidently intended

Width Length Height Price $ 5.00
 (over)

Acc. 1060

5

the country at a very early date; probably prior to the Spanish occupation.

Inherited jars usually have the edges nicked.

A man's wealth is largely measured by the number & value of his jars.
A head may be paid for by the payment of one jar.