

A

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY 42-29

259938.

Provenience: Papua New Guinea, Eastern Highlands Province,
Kainantu District

Field No.

People or Culture: Agarabi

W105

Object: MOUTH HARP

Material: Bamboo, bark-fiber string

Description: Bamboo mouth harp made from a segment of bamboo cut at one end on both sides to form 2 vee points. One point is bored through to hold a bark-fiber cord. Bamboo segment to slit twice length-wise to form a long skinny reed tapering to a fine point in center of two lengths. SEE WELSCH'S DETAILED ARCHIVE DESCRIPTION IN ACCESSION FILE 3615.

Neg. No.

109739

109736

Dimensions: L. = 25.5 cm; W. = 3.0 cm; D. = 2.8 cm.
(in cm.) L. = 83.5 cm (with string extended)

Acc.

3615

Collection:

Collected by Robert L. Welsch, 1977-1980.
Received June and December, 1984.