

AENT

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY

543-8118

253288

Field No.

*Bieber
C 42*

Provenience: CHINA, bought in Peking, supposedly made in Nanking

People or Culture: Chinese      Period: Late 19th c.

Object: Man's skirt, said to be military.

Material: Gauze

Description: Skirt in two sections overlapping in front, attached to black cotton waistband. Brown gauze embroidered with gold, buff, and red with some blue and turquoise. Dragon medallions above waves and rocky islands, dragons, shou characters auspicious symbols and clouds. ~~Border~~ of same design just below waistband. Border of gold and brown auspicious symbols on

Dimensions: bottom and sides.
(in cm.)

length of waist band: 165. length of skirt: 104.5

Neg. No.

Acc. 2786

Collection: C. F. Bieber Collection of Asian Folk and Minor Arts, purchased from Miss Caroline Frances Bieber 15 November 1962

