

A 34657

1-2

NEG. ALB. P. 434

Acc. 1000

ENT

FIELD COLUMBIAN MUSEUM.

Philippines

34-60

Country

Locality

People

Name

Stock.

Mindanao Isld
Moro
Sword & sheath. Curved blade, widening from handle to slanting point. Had curved handle, lower end bound with band of silver one end of handle oblong projection, other end curved. Sheath of 2 flat pieces of wood.

over.
Collection

E. E. Ayer

Notes

Sword 59 cm long

Price

These scimiter-like knives, with blades widening from the handle to a slanting point, are used solely as weapons. They are kept in light wooden sheaths through which the blades will easily pass if time does not permit of drawing the blades.

