

A

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY.

109552

ENT

34-58

Country Luzon, P. I.

Locality Apayao Sub-Province. Burayayan

People Apayao (Tinguian)

Stock.

Name Alátay. Shield. Same type as 109544 but has red & yellow decorations on front near center over

1291

Collection R. F. Cummings Expedition,
 (F. C. Cole, 1907=8),

Notes

Acc. 1060

Width

Length

Height

Price

$1.00
 + trade

The shield used by the Apayao are quite different from those used by any of their neighbors. They are used to deflect the spears and arrows of their enemies. A bundle of spikes is often carried on the back to place in the path when retreating from a forary.