

A

FIELD COLUMBIAN MUSEUM.

34-21

34477

1-2

Country

Locality

People

Name

Stock.

Philippine Islands.
 Western Mindanao
 Moro +
 Brass vessel, bulging sides,
 Carved ornamentation.
 Shallow basin - like lid,
 telescopic. over

Collection

E. E. Ayer

Notes

Probably imported from Singapore, upper tray for betel nuts, base was used as cuspidor.

Price

Acc.

980

NEG. ALB. P. 492

The metal used in this specimen is an alloyed brass, probably of foreign origin although such urns are sometimes made by the natives. During festivals such dishes are used, the upper tray for betel nuts and the urn as a cuspidor.

