

WOMEN'S MUSICAL INSTRUMENT

The principal instrument used in dances and ceremonies is made by cutting down a small tree, stripping it of bark, and suspending it by means of rattan. The women then line up in front of it, and with short sticks beat out a rhythmical tattoo.

BATAK

Northern Palawan, Philippine Islands

ROBERT F. CUMMINGS EXPEDITION

F. C. COLE, COLLECTOR

109830