CIGARS

Tobacco is rolled in a green leaf and one end is lighted by applying it to glowing coals. The burning end is then placed in the mouth. After two or three puffs the fire is extinguished and the process is repeated.

BATAK

Northern Palawan, Philippine Islands

ROBERT F. CUMMINGS EXPEDITION
F. C. COLE, COLLECTOR

109802