

126140

IMC

54B-10/22

Country China

Locality Peking

People Chinese

Name Pocket-book or money bag of red satin, made in form of a cicada, embroidered in couching stitch in threads of gold, silver, green & lavender and fitted with mirror on back. Inside is a folding case of three pockets, made of purple, yellow, blue and rose satin. Flat cord of yellow weave, with ornamental knots and silk tassels of various shades.

Collection Capt. Marshall Field Expedition to China, 1923.

1625
NEG. A.B.P. 340

Acc. 1462

Width Length Height Price

