

A ENT

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ARCHAEOLOGY

598-12/02

235275

1-2

Provenience: China

Field No.

People or Culture: Chinese      Period: Unknown

Object: Two fragments of metal-mirror

Material: Lacquered white metal

Description: Two fragments which fit together to form about  $\frac{2}{3}$  of a mirror with scalloped edge. Raised designs of phoenix and dragon; knob in center. Perforated for cord attachments.

Neg. No.

Dimensions:

(in cm.)

one -  $16.2 \times 6.6$       two -  $10.5 \times 11.6$
 ~~$11.5 \times 11.4$~~

Collection: Presented by Miss Edna H. Bahr
 17 November 1959.

Acc.

2680

