

162990

Field No.

8

Provenience: Phillipine Islands, Luzon Island, Village of Gining.

People or Culture: Ilongot.

Object: Woven Bag.

Material: Grass, fiber, horsehair, yarn, cloth, metal wire.Description: Rectangular, diagonally-woven grass bag bound on 3 sides with red cotton cloth; front is decorated at side and bottom edges with a row of red and yellow, blue, or green yarn tufts; two rows of yarn tufts at top; red and yellow yarn tuft "X" in center front;
within the edges are black and red painted designs and 3 widthwise painted bands dividing the front into 4 parts; waistband is of twisted fiber; shorter end
Dimensions:

(in cm.) Width: 18.45, Length: 22.00

Neg. No.

A8

neg. Alb. P.
435

Acc.

2958

Collection:

forms a loop with about an inch in the middle bound with wire at the ends of which are two yarn tufts; the other end consists of 2 strands of fiber bound with wire and decorated with short strands of horsehair and 2 red yarn tufts.

