- comment by Wilbur, ca early 1940's: 'Conventional Ch'ing landscape on paper in ink and faint colour. Signature on painting is Fang Shi-shu, a Ch'ing painter. The execution has some good quality, there is variety of tone and sureness of brush. But in my opinion, the painting is rigid, as for example the large trees in the foreground in which foliage delination is clipped and hard, as is also the composition of the piece as a whole'.
