

WOMAN'S HAT

The upper surface of this hat is a palm leaf, but the top is usually covered with woven bamboo strips. Such hats are often worn when working in the hot sun, though usually the women wear nothing on their heads (see photographs).

TINGUIAN

Northwestern Luzon, Philippine Islands

ROBERT F. CUMMINGS EXPEDITION

F. C. COLE, COLLECTOR

108744