

TIMBER MARKERS

A device made use of by native carpenters to mark the timbers. Rags soaked in soot and water are placed in the bowl, and a cord passed through, which, when drawn along the board or timber marks the line to which it is to be cut.

TINGUIAN

Northwestern Luzon, Philippine Islands

ROBERT F. CUMMINGS EXPEDITION

F. C. COLE, COLLECTOR

108729, 32