

BARONGS

The barong is a typical Moro weapon, used especially for close combat. The broad blade with thick back gives them weight. They are entirely native made, and the finer ones are highly valued. The ivory is from Borneo, the silver ferrules made from silver coins.

MORO

Sulu Archipelago, Philippine Islands

PRESENTED BY EDWARD E. AYER

34469, 70, 525
34632, 33, 644