

LANTAKA

Heavy cannon of brass or bronze have been cast by the Moro for several centuries. It is probable that the invention was made by the Chinese, but reached the Philippines by the way of Borneo and Java. They were used to protect the fortified villages, and also carried on the war vessels, especially by the pirates of former years.

MORO

Sulu Archipelago, Philippine Islands