

HAIR REMOVING INSTRUMENTS

A bamboo device used to remove hairs from the face. A section of bamboo having been split at one end the offending hairs are placed in the slits. The section is bent to a half circle firmly grasping the hairs, and is suddenly jerked outward. One instrument displayed is made from a lower section of bejuco split at one end. The root is cut so as to resemble the head of a carabao.

TINGUIAN

Northwestern Luzon, Philippine Islands

ROBERT F. CUMMINGS EXPEDITION

F. C. COLE, COLLECTOR

108790-92, 797