A	FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY 51-19
83074	Provenience: Polynesia, Hawaiian Islands
Field No.	People or Culture: Hawaiians
New Trier#	Object: Knobbed pounder (pohaku Ku'i poi)
	Material: basalt ( close-grained)
Cooke label #11 Neg. No.	Description: Knobbed puonder of close-grained basalt, beige color overall with small brown area on upper terminal knob and light brown on base. Knob resembles a mushroom cap. Circular neck slopes down into shaft with enough length to form a good grip. Lower end flares outward markedly to provide a larger pounding surface for mashing Taro to make poi. Pounder show usage. (see Buck, Arts& Crafts of Hawaii, BPBMUS. spec. pub.45, Dimensions: Approx. Dia:11.4cm 1957,pp 28-29)
	(in cm.) H: 18.8cm
Acc. 3652	Collection: Cooke