

TOOTH-BRUSHES

Tooth-brushes made from wild boar's bristles. While they are used primarily to remove particles of betel nut from the teeth they also serve as ornaments, and are commonly attached to the jackets or necklaces of both men and women.

BAGOBO

Davao Gulf, Mindanao, Philippine Islands

ROBERT F. CUMMINGS EXPEDITION

F. C. COLE, COLLECTOR

128999-900