

BIRD NET

The net is stretched between trees or poles where birds are accustomed to fly. Wooden decoys are often attached to the net in order to attract the game. Once enmeshed in the net the birds are easily caught. This net is about 14 feet long.

BAGOBO

Southern Mindanao, Philippine Islands

ROBERT F. CUMMINGS EXPEDITION
F. C. COLE, COLLECTOR

129270