

ENT

A

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY

34-29

252476

Provenience: Philippines, Luzon Island

Field No.

People or Culture: Barrio Cambulo, Banaue
Ifugao

Object: Blanket

Material: Bark fiber (from a Leucosyke, probably capitellata; less likely Boehmeria multiflora)

Description:

8 pieces of plain weave cloth sewn together to make one piece, with thick weft and warp threads; warp threads are naturally colored, only the weft threads are colored. The pattern is ~~ap~~plaid of black, red, and natural colors; The large natural colored vertical stripe on each piece has 4 rows of red and black striped designs at each end, consisting of 7 small triangles with apices point-

Neg. No.

Dimensions: Length: 230.5 Width: 150 cm.
(in cm.)

Acc.

3058

Collection: Received from Mr. E.D. Hester, July 1968.

ing alternately, in opposite directions
parallel with the length of the cloth.
Acc. Coll. " Bark stripped in narrow strips,
1 cm. wide; spun on thigh. Woven on back-strap loom"

