

ENT

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY 34-29

252479

Provenience: Luzon Island, Philippines
Barrio Batad, Banaue

Field No.

People or Culture: Ifugao

Object: Blanket

Material: Bark fiber

Description: Two pieces of cloth with wide brown and beige stripes running the full length, sewn together; Plain weave; brown stripes of Leukosyke hispidissima, possibly L. capitella; beige stripes of Boehmeria nivea. Acc. Coll., "Bark stripped in narrow strips, 1 cm. wide; spun on thigh. Woven on backstrap loom".

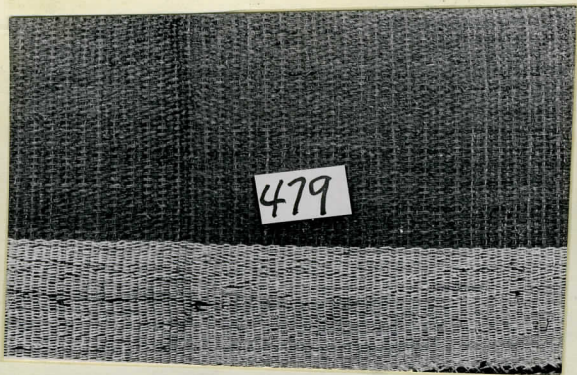

Neg. No.

40

Dimensions: Length: 280.5 Width: 91.8 cm.
(in cm.)

Acc. 3058

Collection: Received from Mr. E. D. Hester,
July 1968.

479