

243698

Field No.

Provenience: Culebra, Cunucunuma R.,
Upper Orinoco, Venezuela

People or Culture: Maquiritare

Object: Manioc grater

Description: Hewn board studded on one side with fragments of quartz and other hard stones. The bits are individually anchored and are secured with a coat of resin. The ends of the board which have no stone on them have a painted design. Also there are some painted zig zags on the back. This is the only type of grater used by the Culebra and Cabecera

Dimensions: Maquiritare.
(in cm.)

69 cms. long      31 cms. wide.

Neg. No.

Collection: Collected by Paul H,
Nesbitt, 1950. Purchase.

Acc. 2460

