

A 268821

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY 51-71

Provenience: Polynesia, Hawaiian Islands, Honolulu

Field No.

People or Culture: Hawaiians

Object: TAPA

Material: Broussonetia papyifera (paper Mulberry bark)

Description: Section cut from Kapa moe, Hawaiian sleeping blanket consisting of decorated Kilohana layer and four white inner layers sewn together with twisted tapa cord. Kilohana consists of broad red (from macerated fibers of red trade cloth) and blue (from laundry bluing) stripes. Has been laundered donor says by dipping sheets in stream and drying on grass.

Neg. No.

- Dimensions: 155.0 width; 221.0 height
(in cm.)

3402
Acc.

Collection: Gift of Miss B. K. Reist, August 28, 1978.