

A ENT

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY-

170 ARCHAEOLOGY

222846

Provenience: Egypt

Field No.

People or Culture: Ancient EgyptiansObject: Head (Older Middle Kingdom, per Dr. Whitcomb) on wood base.Material: Limestone (with traces of paint)Description: Head of statue broken off at neck. Represents male wearing a close fitting wig or very short hair. Traces of red paint remain on mouth, right ear, and around hairline on right side. Nose is chipped on left side and left eye orbit is damaged. Head is glued to wooden base. Tag glued to wooden base bottom reads, "D. Kelekain, Place VenDome, Ha 99."

Neg. No.

Dimensions: H: 4.2 + base
(in cm.) Diam.: 5.0

Acc.

3430

Collection: Gift of Mr. Wrigley Offield in memory of mother, Mrs. Dorothy Wrigley Offield, 10/29/79.