

ENT

A

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY

51-10

194371

Provenience: Polynesia-Tokelau Islands, Atafu Is.Field No.*People or Culture: Tokelau Islanders

A-43

Object: coconut shell containerMaterial: almost mature coconut shell (Agalele), sennit, Puka (Hernandia ovigera)Description: Coconut shell container covered with sennit netting. Base and handle are of thickly twisted sennit. Puka stopper is attached by sennit cord thru hole drilled thru its middle to the handle.Neg. No.*Dimensions: height (with handle extended) 30.5;
(in cm.) circumference 42.0.Acc.

3149

Collection: Purchased from Dr. Judith Huntsman
3/18/71; col. by Dr. Huntsman, 1969-1970