

A ENT

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY

235570

Provenience: CHINA. Peking

54B-25/01d

Field No.

People or Culture: Chinese. Modern

Object: Scroll painting

Material: Silk, paper, wood, cotton string

Description: A painting depicting two men at the head of a parade carrying banners proclaiming the commemoration of the Liberation of Peking, China.

A group of Chinese opera actors walking in stilts dominates the painting. Background color is white, dresses of human figures in different colors and silk framing is of cream. Two wooden rods in side ends

Dimensions: with cotton string to secure when rolled.

(in cm.)

Acquired in Peking in 1950. (See sketch on

Ht. - 19.1

W. - 136

the back) .

Neg. No.

2806

Acc.

Collection: Presented by Rev. (Miss) Ellen M. Studley 5 August 1963. Collected by donor circa 1923-1963.

