

AGENT

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY

235572

Provenience: CHINA . Peking

57B-25/oid

Field No.

People or Culture: Chinese. Modern

Object: Scroll painting

Material: Paper, silk, wood and cotton string

Description: A scroll painting of seven groups of children shown playing different games. On the far right side of the painting is a group of four children bearing an effigy of a green dragon. Background color is white, multicolored dresses of human figures and cream silk framing. Wooden rods at both ends with a cotton string for securing when rolled. Acquired in Peking in 1947.

(in cm.) (See sketch on the back).

Neg. No.

Ht. - 20.6

W. - 146

Acc.

2806

Collection: Presented by Rev. (Miss) Ellen M. Studley 5 August 1963. Collected by donor circa 1923-1963.

