

A

268337

Provenience: Indonesia, Java, North Coast

Field No.

People or Culture: Javanese

Object: Batik tulis

Material: Cotton, aniline dyes

Description: Fine Batik tulis called Sore/Pagi meaning Evening/Morning. (I.d. by Dr. Janet Hoskins, Inst. of Advanced Studies, Princeton 1991). Diagonal bands of green or blue bordered by red bands cover 1/3 of the cloth along one side with depictions of birds and flowers. Remainder of cloth has buff background with outline design of red diamond shapes with 2 large peacocks, small bird in flight, many different flowers.

Neg. No.

Fragmented piece, hemmed on one end.
Dimensions:
(in cm.) l.=178.0 h.=104.0

Acc. 3754

Collection: