

162503

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY.

31-5

Country Dutch East IndiesLocality NiasPeople Malayans

Stock

Name Knife & sheath.  shape of blade.

(1340)
 Brass ferrule. Wooden handle is carved to represent a mythical animal-part bird part beast (combines strength & cunning of each).
 Wooden sheath with metal sides & cross bands attached to it is a rattan ball with lignum

Collection Arthur B. Jones Expedition to Malaysia, 1922-3.

F. C. Cole, Collector.

Notes other teeth. A powerful magical device a charm. A fighting (or work) knife.

Width Blade Length 48 $\frac{1}{2}$ cm Height

Price 12.00

Acc. 1439

Crocodile