

A

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ARCHAEOLOGY

170

31723

Provenience: Egypt, Thebes

Field No.

People or Culture:*Object: STATUE HEADMaterial: Black basalt? Diorite?Description: Mentu-En-Hat, wearing a double wig. He has almond-shaped eyes, nose is broken. Stylized stars on shoulder represent a leopard skin. Inscription on shoulder indicates he is fourth priest of Amen. Three column inscription on back.

Neg. No.

95011-12

95210-11

Torso in Brooklyn Museum (catalogue number 16.580.186). Plaster cast of torso received from Brooklyn Museum 7/26/55; Accession 2537, catalogue number 220857

Dimensions:
(in cm.)

Acc. 594

Collection: Edward E. Ayer, 1898; purchased 1899

CMNH Bulletin, Oct 1957, p. 8. "Two Museums Reunite a Shared Egyptian" Richard A. Martin