

A ENT

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY

51-26

191492.

Provenience: Polynesia, Hawaii Island of Oahu Island

Field No.

People or Culture: HawaiianObject: Feather Lei (lei pāni'o or lei 'oni)Material: Mamo (Drepanis pacifica) feathers, Vini kuhli (Kuhl's Lory) feathers, apapane (Himatione sanguinea)Description:

Spiral banded lei capped at one end with yellow silk thread, then banded in orange-yellow mamo, black '0'0, red apapane, and chartreuse Vini kuhli. Each end finished in all four colors, one end capped with yellow silk thread and black ribbon tie, other end same tie plus black velvet tie on. Mamo were endemic to Hawaiian Islands.

Neg. No.

Dimensions:

(in cm.) l. 52.0 cm. w. 2.7 cm.

Acc.

3526

Collection: Gift of Mrs. Wayne Nash Garwood, 8/17/81

191492

Material: feathers, 'O'O(Moho nobilis)feathers, silk ribbon and thread.