

ENT

A

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY

51-39

194343
1-9

Provenience: Polynesia-Tokelau Islands, Atafu Is

Field No.

People or Culture: Tokelau Islanders

A-15

Object: model of a double canoe (Fua Lua)

Material: wood, sennit line, string, shells, pandanus

Description: 1-two dugout canoes each carved from piece of wood lashed together with sennit to wooden framework surrounding a wood platform.
Each canoe has 3 shells attached by string to curved ridge at its bow and 2 at stern (1 is missing at each stern) a small platform attac by sennit is near stern of each canoe (MODEL (Over)

Neg. No.

Dimensions: 1-length 40.0; width 17.0.
(in cm.) 2-5 length 14.0; width 2.5ea. (Ove

Acc 3149

Collection: Purchased from Dr. Judith Huntsman

NOT MADE TO EXACT SCALE). 2-5 4 wood paddles (Foe) of spatulate shape. 6-sail (Laa) of plaited pandanus and mast (Toko) which is wood, rounded, thicker and pointed top with 10 holes pierced in it for attached line. 7-sennit line twisted for lashing sail to mast 8-club (Kini) for killing fish, lt. colored wood 9-bailer (TaTaa) lt. colored wood scoop with handle insi

Dimensions: (contd.)

6-height 46.0; width 24.0 (sail)
height 33.0; diameter 1.0 (mast)
7-diameter (as coiled) 3.5;
8-length 10.5; width 1.0
9-height 1.0; width 3.0 1. 9.5

Catalogue # 194343
Subs. 1-9