

ENT

A

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY

50-2

288344.

A-D

Field No.

Provenience: Micronesia, MARSHALL ISLANDS, Kwajelin AtollPeople or Culture: Marshall IslandersObject: MODEL of a sailing OUTRIGGER CANOEMaterial: Wood, pandanus sp., string, coir.

Description: Canoe has double ended hull, asymmetric sides, lee platform, 3 accessory booms connected to float, 2 main booms. Triangular sail of six graduated sections of herringbone pandanus strips sewn together. [Compare with FM #91421.] [See collection notes in accession file.]

Neg. No.

A-canoe & outrigger: W: 63.0 cm.; H: 17.0; L: 62.0

B-mast: H: 62.8 cm.; diam.: 0.4

Dimensions: C-sail: sides- 62.0 cm.; base- 58.0
(in cm.) D-paddle: H: 21.5 cm.; W: 1.8

Acc. 3328

Collection: Gift of McCormick Theological Seminary,
June 30, 1976.

Cat. #288344. A-D

cf. Canoes of Oceania, A. C. Haddon, James Harnell, Vol. 1,
The Canoes of Polynesia, Fiji, and Micronesia, B.P. Bishop
Museum Special Pub. 27, 1st printing, 1936, reprint B.M. Press, 1975, pp. 361-371.