

268413

A + - G

Field No.

Provenience: Micronesia, Western Carolines, Yap IslandPeople or Culture: YapeseObject: CANOE MODEL "Popo"Material: Wood, hibiscus fiber cord, paint, bamboo

Description: A—single outrigger canoe hull painted orange and black. Both ends (prow and stern) carved to represent tail of Frigate bird, painted black and white. One end broken off (canoe has several pieces broken off in shipping here). No sails were sent and canoe model may be missing quarter rudder. A+—outrigger; B—outer lateral of sailing platform; C—mainmast (bamboo stick); D—mast (bamboo stick); E—rudder is paddle shaped, triangular tip blade, (over)

Dimensions:

(in cm.)

SEE REVERSE SIDE

Neg. No.

Acc.

3346

Collection: Purchased from Marvin Montvel-Cohen, 6/22/77; collected by Montvel-Cohen, 1967-1971.

Cat. No. 268413.

cut-out diamond shaped handle; F-steering paddle with triangular tipped blade; G-paddle with blade tapered to point. This is a sailing canoe of "Popo" design with triangular ^{outrigger} and lee platforms, halyard double-ended hull.

Dimensions: A-Length: 88.0; Height: 20.5; Width: 46.0

Approximate measurements of unrepaired canoe.

A+ -Length: 38.5; Height: 7.5; Width: 3.0 B -Length: 18.4; Width: 1.2

C -Length: 47.0; Width: .09 D -Length: 39.5; Width: .05

E -Height: 34.0; Width: 2.2 F -Height: 20.5; Width: 1.7

G -Height: 20.6; Width: 1.5

SEE Müller, Südsee Expedition 1908-1910, Vol. 2, Yap Book 1,
pp. 170-187; Haddon and Hornell, Canoes of Oceania, Bishop Museum Special Publication 27, 1936, Section on Carolines.