

ENT

A

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY

22-1

194677

Field No.

Provenience: Africa. Ghana-Ivory Coast borderPeople or Culture: Agni-KrinjaboObject: HeadMaterial: Terra cotta Neg. No.

71

Description: Tan, terra cotta head used as a funeral offering. Male head is broken at the neck and mounted on a brass rod for display. The eyes and mouth are slits in raised modeling. Tribal scars are on the cheeks, forehead and nape of neck. One ear and part of the chin are broken off. Made for gravesite of a chief. A funerary head-commemorative of the dead chief.

Dimensions: Head and mounting height: 35.5.
(in cm.) Head circumference: 26.0.

Acc.

3204

Collection: Gift of Dr. Robert P. Armstrong.
11/20/1972. Collected 1964 by Dr. Armstrong.

Catalog # 194677.