

ENT
A

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY

22-1

257258

Field No.

Provenience: Africa, Ivory Coast, Falambo near Meféré.People or Culture: Agni.Object: Terracotta head.Material: Terracotta.

Neg. No.

62✓

Description: This brown-slipped head has single inverted scars on the cheeks, series of inverted V scars all around the neck. Neck has necklace with two pendants, one front, one back. Hair is dressed in three braids, one on top, one on each side. Eyes are represented with eyeballs set in. Eyebrows are raised curved lines with vertical slashes in them. Acc. Coll.: Representing royal ancestors, head was placed on deceased's grave

Dimensions: Height-27.6, width-16.0. (over)
(in cm.)

Acc.

3184

Collection: Purchased from Mr. Robin Mix,
April 26, 1972.

(continued from front)-and was tended by relatives.
More recent piece than No. 257257.

