

02037
ENT

Country Mexico
 Locality Mitla, Oaxaca (?)
 People Zapotec, Zapotecan Stock

Name Double whistling jar of thin red-dish pottery. A large cup with incised decorations near rim with hole near bottom connecting with hollow figure adjoining. Figure is probably of monkey. Water probably whistles in passing.

Orig. No.

141

Collection Museum Purchase, 1916 through. Over
Probably used as a water pitcher

Notes cf. Penner, Jour. Soc. Amer. Paris, 10, 1913

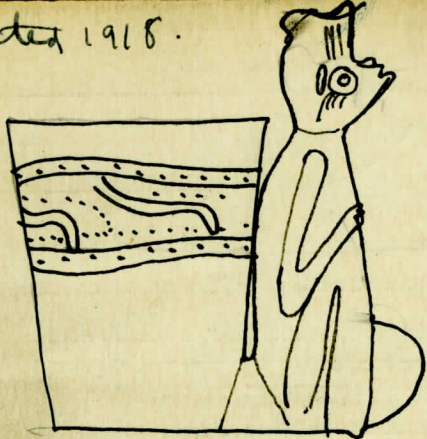

pl. III. 1 identical animal figure from Labula.

Width 12 cm Length 16 cm Height 15 cm Price

Acc.

1265

exhibited 1918.

57