

A

ENT

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY

22-8

257262

A-C

Field No.

Provenience: Africa, N. Nigeria, Bornu Province.People or Culture: Kanuri.Object: Boy's outfit.Material: Cotton.

Description: A-blue shirt with left chest pocket, tab front, short sleeves, and stitching in tearshape at back of neck. B-blue robe with wide, very short sleeves, armhole reaches from shoulder to 3" above hem, rectangular neck and yoke, large pocket sewn on bottom of neck and left chest with small stitchery design. C-blue pants with shoestrings used in drawstring waist, tapering from wide waist to narrower lower leg. Acc. Coll.: All were Dimensions: A-length-89.5, width across sleeves- (over) (in cm.) 107.0; B-1-57.0, w-80.5; C-1-69.0, waist-54.0.

Neg. No.

62

Acc.

3185

Collection: Gift of Dr. and Mrs. Ronald Cohen, May 15, 1972.

(continued from front)-Made by male tailor in a market.
It was collected in 1966. Shirt is worn over pants, and robe is worn over all.

