

ENT A

221597

Field No.

Neg. No.

Acc.

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY 22-1

Provenience: probably Portuguese GuineaPeople or Culture: NaluObject: stylized head on baseMaterial: wood;;copper

Description: anthropomorphic head with jawline almost parallel to ground and produced into a beak; coiffure in form of two-braided sagittal crest; neck on a 3-tiered conical base, the uppermost tier is decorated with incised geometric ornament; flat metal rings around neck; bottom of base perforated many times on its circumference; many of the perforations broken through.

Dimensions:

(in cm.)

Height: 23.8.

Collection: Received in exchange from Mr. Harvey T. Menist November 21, 1968.

3045

