

222227

Provenience: Kenya Lurugumu Dist.

Field No.

People or Culture: Turkana

T43,

Object: DollMaterial: Wood, beads, fibre, leather

Description: Female figure made of a block of wood stained black. Some attention to anatomical detail. Figure has twisted black fibre "hair". Costume is for an unmarried girl and is used to transfer embarrassment to the doll when asking a man to dance. Back skirt has 5 mm. ^{beads} in red, white and blue sewn to leather. Leather front apron has a border of white 5 mm. beads. Girdle has red, white, blue, and yellow 5 mm. beads. Nine mostly red and white neck-

Dimensions: laces with one yellow one.

(in cm.) Height 36.4 cm. Width 10. cm.

Neg. No.

88

Acc. 3260

Collection: Field Museum of Natural History Purchase 1974
Collected by Mrs. Ann Frewitt 1973

