

222126

Field No.

KA-3a

Neg. No.

Provenience: Kenya Location MaiiPeople or Culture: KambaObject: Belt (musyando)Material: Cloth, sisal, glass beads, copper chain

Description: Heavy belt made by circumcised but unmarried girls and worn high on the hips at dances. Five tight rolls of cloth are covered with strings of 2 mm. glass beads and bound together. Beads are white with bands of red, two shades of blue, and yellow. Two of the red bands have inset triangles of blue and white beads. Two closed copper chains form a loose closing.

Dimensions: Width 8.25 cm. Length 75 cm. Chains 18 cm.
(in cm.) and 24 cm. looped

Acc.

90
3260

Collection: Field Museum of Natural History Purchase 1974
Collected by Mrs. Ann Prewitt 1972

Catalogue # 222126.

