Provenience: S. America, Peru: Central or South Coast

People or Culture: Probably Late Intermediate Period

Object: BRAIDED CORDS, TEXTILE

Material: Cotton—WOOL

Description: Two tight, full "bunches" of slender tubular braided cords 1/2 cm thick. A310/4 brown, gold and rust. 5874/5 red, green, gold and black.

see other side

Dimensions: Many cm in length for each "bunch."
(in cm.)

Collection: Gift of Northwestern University, 1/29/81.
(Dr. James Brown, Dept. of Anthropology)

There seem to be 8 separate cords with different patterns and colors, not just 2.

These are all wool, and similar to 2 pieces of 171359 (No sub) from Poroma, Nazca Valley (Inca or Inca period)
