

A

ENT

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY

25-12

231956

Field No.

Provenience: East Horn, Somalia, MogadishuPeople or Culture: Galla or SabObject: textileMaterial: cotton

Description: Black and red tabby woven cloth has crosswise groups of three yellow and white stripes. One selvedge edge is red, with a narrow yellow stripe between it and the main pattern; the other selvedge is bright green and a series of yellow and white stripes are woven between the green section and a broad red lengthwise stripe which is set off from the main pattern by further yellow and white stripes. Ends are unhemmed.

Neg. No.

Dimensions:
(in cm.)

372 x 59.6

Acc.

3276

Collection: Given by Carol Slavin, August 1974; collected by Ms. Slavin, 1969.