

A

FIELD COLUMBIAN MUSEUM.

18-4

ENT.

No 5974 Country

People

Locality

Bolivia La Paz

Name

Black & white designed woolen cap - from old india

Collection

Dafford

(over)

Where Placed

Notes

5

Acc. 45

63

sch
Conical knitted caps are woven by Aymara Indian men of the wool of the llama, less often of the sheep. The most common are in black and white, the better ones in color. The region is cold and the caps are a welcome protection to the head and ears.¹/₂