

A

FIELD MUSEUM OF NATURAL HISTORY—ETHNOLOGY

24-14

Provenience: South East Africa, Kenya

People or Culture: Pokot

Object: calabash and lid

Material: calabash gourd

Description: Brown in color. Curved, squat shape with incised designs. There are two bird figures on it. One bird has opened its wings. Both birds have stripes on them. There is a diamond pattern around the neck, sides and base and a carved leaf on the bottom. The gourd has an attached, beaded leather strap on either side with a hanging strap and decorated lid.

Dimensions:
(in cm.) L: 28cm D: (Approx): 17cm.

Field No.
221943
A-B

Neg. No.

Acc. 3298

Collection: Collected by Mr. Alan Donovan, 1974.

DHR