

ENT
155554

CHICAGO NATURAL HISTORY MUSEUM—ETHNOLOGY

18-16

Field No.

Provenience: NORTHERN ECUADOR, Esmeraldo Province

People or Culture:

Object: Drum

Material: Wood,hide,vine

Description: Drum has hide stretched over one end. The hide is held down by thongs attached to a vine wrapped around the drum about 15 cm from its base. The vine is wedged tightly in place by 5 wooden stakes. There is a hole in the bottom of the drum. Drum is played with the flat of the hands.

Neg. No.

Dimensions:
(in cm.)

22 w. at top. 16 at bottom
54 High

Acc.

2798

Collection: Presented by Dr. John H. Meyer
25 April, 1963.

see acc. jacket for photo

